Report on How to Crack MPSC and UPSC

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recently conducted a seminar titled "How to Crack MPSC and UPSC," specifically designed for aspirants aiming to succeed in the Maharashtra Public Service Commission (MPSC) and Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) exams. The seminar took place on the 11th of February, 2023, from 6:00 PM to 8:30 PM in Block No. 204. Organized by Ms. Mala Tiwari, the IQAC Coordinator, the event featured Mr. Nilesh Hembade, a PSI specializing in Cyber Crime, as the resource person, who shared valuable insights and strategies from his extensive experience in the field.

During the seminar, Mr. Hembade provided a detailed analysis of the exam patterns for both MPSC and UPSC, helping participants understand the structure and requirements of each examination. He emphasized effective preparation strategies, including the development of tailored study plans and techniques that have proven successful for previous aspirants. Additionally, Mr. Hembade offered guidance on recommended books and study materials, equipping attendees with the resources necessary for thorough preparation. The importance of time management was also addressed, with tips on how to efficiently allocate time for study and practice to maximize results.

Furthermore, the seminar focused on the significance of maintaining the right attitude and staying motivated throughout the preparation journey. Mr. Hembade shared strategies for building resilience and fostering a positive mind-set, which are crucial for overcoming challenges in the competitive exam landscape. The event concluded with an interactive Q&A session, allowing participants to address individual queries and doubts directly with the resource person. Overall, this seminar provided aspiring candidates with the knowledge and tools needed to effectively prepare for and succeed in the MPSC and UPSC examinations. Vote of thanks for the program was delivered by our F.Y.BSC.CS students Mr. Pratham Kadam. He thanked all the members and students for their patience and listening to the program. Overall the resource person gave insightful information throughout the seminar. It was a great learning experience for all the students. They were motivated to crack the MPSC AND UPSC exam.

Report on an online workshop "Career Aspects in Different Fields"

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recently conducted an online workshop titled "Career Aspects in Different Fields" to provide valuable insights into various career paths and assist participants in making informed decisions about their professional futures. The workshop was held on the 12th of February, 2021, from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM via the Zoom online platform. Dr. Piyush Anam, an Assistant Professor at Gurukul College, was the primary speaker for the event. He shared his real-world experiences and offered expert advice on career growth and advancement opportunities. Mr. Rajendra Vare, the IQAC Coordinator, organized the event, which featured several key highlights aimed at guiding students towards successful careers.

The workshop commenced with an overview of diverse career fields, including Engineering, Medicine, Law, Arts, Commerce, and Technology. This segment was designed to help students explore a wide range of career options. Following this, industry trends and the future outlook in various sectors were discussed, providing attendees with up-to-date information on the job market. The workshop also emphasized the essential skills and qualifications needed for different careers, offering guidance on how to meet these requirements.

The session also included an interactive Q&A segment, allowing participants to ask questions and seek personalized guidance. This comprehensive approach ensured that attendees left with a clearer understanding of their potential career paths and the steps necessary to achieve their professional goals.

Report on webinar: Passing the Bank and SSC exams while working a full-time job

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recently conducted an informative webinar titled "Pass the Bank and SSC (Staff Selection Commission) Exams While Working a Full-Time Job" for all SY and TY B.Com and B.Sc (CS) students. The webinar took place on the 31st of July, 2020, from 5:00 PM to 7:30 PM, and was held on the Zoom online platform. The resource person for the webinar was Mr. Prem Patwa. The resource person focused on providing strategies and tips to help students balance their exam preparation with their professional commitments, making it feasible to succeed in these competitive exams while maintaining a full-time job.

During the webinar, the importance of creating a realistic schedule was emphasized. Students were advised to assess their current daily routines to identify free slots for study sessions. A daily study plan, allocating 1-2 hours for study during early mornings, lunch breaks, or evenings, was recommended. Additionally, the significance of weekend intensive study sessions, dedicating 4-5 hours to cover more material, was highlighted. Prioritizing study topics by breaking down the syllabus, focusing on weak areas, and regularly practicing previous exam papers were identified as essential strategies for effective preparation.

The webinar also covered the use of online resources, such as enrolling in online coaching classes, using educational apps for quick revisions, and participating in online forums and study groups. Effective time management techniques, like the Pomodoro Technique, and minimizing distractions were discussed to maintain focus. Students were encouraged to stay consistent and motivated by setting short-term goals, rewarding themselves after significant achievements, and maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Utilizing work breaks efficiently, communicating with employers for flexible hours or leave of absence, and incorporating mindfulness practices to manage stress were also suggested. By following these strategies and maintaining a disciplined approach, students can effectively prepare for the Bank and SSC exams while managing their full-time jobs. One of our students Ms. Prajakta Utekar gave vote of thanks for the program. She thanked the resource person for their insightful outputs from the webinar which enlightened the webinar. Overall it was a great learning experience for the students.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recently conducted a seminar titled "Strong Strategies to Pass Any Competitive Exam on Your First Try" for all students of FY, SY, and TY B.Com and B.Sc (CS) Degree College. The seminar was held on the 14th of February, 2020, from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM in Room No. 307 on the third floor of the college building. Mr. Dhananjay Kanchnar, a renowned expert in competitive exam preparation, was the resource person for this event, providing valuable insights and effective strategies for exam success.

During the seminar, Mr. Kanchnar emphasized the importance of strategic planning and effective study techniques for passing competitive exams on the first attempt. He began by explaining the need to understand the exam pattern, including the structure, types of questions, and marking scheme. He advised students to create a comprehensive study plan that covers all subjects and to master basic concepts as a foundation for more advanced topics. Regular practice through solving previous papers and taking mock tests was highlighted as crucial for enhancing familiarity with the exam format and improving time management skills.

Mr. Kanchnar also stressed the significance of identifying strengths and weaknesses, recommending that students focus more on weaker areas while maintaining their strengths. Effective time management during both preparation and the exam itself was underscored. He encouraged students to stay updated with current affairs, particularly for exams that include such sections. Seeking guidance and clarifying doubts, maintaining a healthy lifestyle, and a positive mind-set were also emphasized as key factors for success. Lastly, he highlighted the importance of thorough revision before the exam to reinforce learning. By following these strategies with dedication and consistency, students can significantly increase their chances of passing any competitive exam on their first try.

Report on A Competitive Exam Mind-set: Student Work Ethics

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recently conducted a seminar titled "A Competitive Exam Mind-set: Student Work Ethics" for all students of FY, SY, and TY B.Com and B.Sc (CS) Degree College. The seminar took place on the 27th of September, 2019, from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM in Room No. 307 on the third floor of the college building. Mr. Subhash Londhe, an esteemed educator, served as the resource person for the program, delivering valuable insights into developing an effective mind-set and work ethic for competitive exams.

During the seminar, Mr. Londhe emphasized several key principles essential for student success. He began by highlighting the importance of consistent effort, stressing that regular, dedicated study sessions adhering to a structured plan are crucial. He also underscored the significance of quality study time, advising students to focus on attentive, distraction-free learning to maximize their understanding. Additionally, he encouraged students to embrace challenges, approaching difficult topics with determination and viewing them as opportunities for growth. Maintaining balance between academic and personal well-being to prevent burnout was another important aspect discussed.

Furthermore, Mr. Londhe elaborated on setting realistic goals by breaking them down into achievable milestones and celebrating progress along the way. He emphasized maintaining a positive outlook, learning from setbacks, and keeping a positive mind-set towards challenges. Effective time management, prioritizing tasks, and seeking support from teachers and peers were also highlighted as critical strategies. Mr. Londhe advised students to stay informed about exam patterns, syllabus revisions, and current affairs. Lastly, he encouraged students to believe in themselves, trust their abilities, and approach exams with confidence. These principles, when adopted, can help students cultivate the mind-set needed to excel in competitive exams.

Report on the seminar: Boosting Cognitive Ability

On 22nd December 2018, a seminar on Boosting Cognitive Ability was held from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM in Block No. 204. Mr. Ashish Gupta as the resource person; the seminar aimed to provide the students of FY, SY and TYB.Com and B.Sc.(CS) with a comprehensive understanding of cognitive abilities, focusing on key aspects such as memory, attention, problem-solving, and critical thinking. By exploring these areas, students gained insights into their strengths and weaknesses, which can help them to target specific areas for cognitive improvement and enhance their overall mental performance.

The seminar emphasized effective learning techniques that are vital for optimizing the learning process. Students learned about proven strategies such as mnemonic devices, spaced repetition, and active recall, which are essential for improving memory retention and understanding. The importance of incorporating mindfulness practices and stress management techniques was also highlighted, as these elements significantly contribute to cognitive performance by fostering mental wellness and creating a conducive environment for effective learning.

In addition to cognitive techniques, the seminar addressed the importance of nutrition and physical exercise for brain health and cognitive enhancement. Students learned about brain-boosting foods and the benefits of maintaining a balanced diet, alongside the positive effects of regular physical activity on memory and focus. The discussion also included practical strategies like time management and goal setting to incorporate into daily routines for further cognitive improvement. Lastly, engaging in interactive sessions with the resource person in cognitive psychology and neuroscience enriched student's understanding and provided valuable insights into enhancing cognitive abilities.

Date: 28/09/2018Report on importance of competitive examinations

On 27th September 2018, a seminar on the Importance of Competitive Examinations was conducted by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) for the students of FY, SY, and TY B.Com and B.Sc. (CS) at the College Building, 3rd Floor, Room No. 307, from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM. The resource person for seminar was Mr. Rajendra Borse. He aimed to inform students about the significance of competitive exams in shaping academic and professional futures. The seminar highlighted how these examinations ensure merit-based selection for academic programs, scholarships, and job placements, promoting fairness and transparency by allowing the most capable individuals to be recognized.

The seminar also addressed the standardized evaluation provided by competitive exams, which offers a uniform method for assessing candidates' knowledge, skills, and abilities. This objectivity enables educational institutions and employers to make informed comparisons among applicants. Moreover, the preparation for these exams fosters rigorous study habits, leading to a deeper understanding of subjects and the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills essential for success in various fields. Additionally, competitive exams play a crucial role in identifying talented individuals, fostering a culture of excellence, and encouraging continuous improvement among students.

Finally, the seminar emphasized the broader impacts of competitive examinations on career advancement, economic mobility, and national development. Success in these exams can open doors to prestigious educational institutions and coveted job positions, significantly impacting individuals' professional courses. They provide opportunities for individuals to break social and economic barriers, thus contributing to upward social mobility. By selecting capable individuals for key roles in education, government, and industry, competitive exams are essential to the overall development and progress of a nation, highlighting their importance in both personal and societal contexts.

Report on session: Career Guidance conducted on 17th September 2022

On September 27, 2022, from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM, students from the FY, SY, and TY B.Com and B.Sc. (CS) programs attended a highly anticipated Career Guidance session conducted by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of our Degree College. The session was held in Room No. 307, on the 3rd floor of the college building, and was led by the esteemed resource person Mr. Rahul B. Khachane. Mr. Khachane's extensive experience and credentials made him an invaluable guide for our students as they navigate their career paths.

Mr. Khachane's impressive academic and professional journey set the stage for a highly insightful session. His success in clearing the UGC-NET examination in July 2016 and receiving the Junior Research Fellowship in May 2019 highlights his academic dedication and research capabilities. These accomplishments underscore his deep understanding of both academic and research domains. Additionally, his practical experience as a financial analyst with prominent firms like Ajmera Associates and AAA Research one Fin. Consultant brings a real-world perspective to the session, allowing students to gain insights from his extensive experience in the financial sector.

The session was designed to help students make informed career decisions by combining Mr. Khachane's academic knowledge with his professional expertise. His guidance on career planning and development was tailored to meet the needs of degree college students, offering them practical advice and strategic insights. As students embark on their career journeys, Mr. Khachane's advice will serve as a valuable resource in navigating the complexities of the modern job market, ensuring they are well-prepared to seize the opportunities that lie ahead.
